

Contest For Inspiring & Energizing Quotes & Pictures

12-22 to 01-02-18 Contest For Inspiring & Energizing Quotes & Pictures

Aren't we dragging just a little? We have a pick-me-up because the shortest day has come and gone. We are going on a Holiday break for a few days, a week or two. But when we get back to our regular rhythm, then what? I thought I'd give us a kick start with inspiring and energizing quotes and photos from you during this break of ours.

The Deal:

- Every day I'll choose ten of the best quotes and or photos I receive from you. I'll post them on Instagram and Facebook. You'll vote with your Likes and Hearts. A winner will be declared each day by you and announced the following day.
- On January 4th, I'll announce the top 10 winners from the number of likes and hearts that entry has. What this means is that you can be a final winner even if you weren't a day winner if people continue liking your quote | Picture throughout the contest.
- The winner will get a 400-750 short story on my blog and newsletter.
- If we get 250 participants, the ten final winners will also receive $100.00.
